DESCRIPTION: A rare opportunity to purchase a substantial Grade II listed period townhouse with a Grade II listed barn to the rear, in one of Exmouth's most characterful streets. This impressive three-storey home offers six bedrooms, generous accommodation, and attractive period features, all offered with no onward chain.

The ground floor includes a sitting/dining room with sash windows and fireplace, a front bedroom with en-suite wet room, and a spacious kitchen/breakfast room overlooking the rear garden.

Upstairs are five further bedrooms across the first, second, and third floors, plus a family bathroom, separate WC, and fitted storage.

Outside, there is a walled garden, off road parking, and the barn (18' x 10') providing excellent potential for a studio, workshop, or storage (subject to consents).

A wonderful period property in a sought-after location, offering a rare chance to create a superb family home.

SITUATION: Bickton Street is a charming residential location known for its period architecture and vibrant sense of community. Lined with attractive character properties within a Conservation Area. The area enjoys an excellent community spirit, with a genuine "neighbourhood" atmosphere. The popular Bickton Inn sits on the street itself and is well-loved for its real ales, live music and regular events, making it a social hub. Just along the road is the Blackmore Theatre, home to local productions throughout the year and contributing to the cultural heartbeat of the neighbourhood.

Bickton Street is incredibly convenient. The town centre is just a few minutes' walk away, offering a wide range of shops, cafés and amenities. The seafront and beach are also within easy walking distance, ideal for enjoying Exmouth's coastal lifestyle, while the railway station is close by, providing quick and easy access to Exeter and beyond.

Bickton Street perfectly combines character, convenience and community – making it a highly desirable place to live.
