Location...

Located approximately 1.5 miles to the south of Rutland Water is the beautiful conservation village of Wing. Wing is located approximately 2.7 miles to the north-east of Uppingham and 3.7 miles to the south-east of Oakham, the county's only towns.

The village located approximately 17 miles to the east of Peterborough and 20 miles to the west of Leicester and the M1 and M69. Corby is 10 miles to the south, the village being located halfway between Uppingham and Oakham off the A6003.

The village of Wing has a population estimated to be just over 300 residents with a history dating back beyond the 12th Century with a historic turf maze, thought to be medieval.

Rutland Water Nature Reserve is approximately 1½ miles to the north boasting a 23-mile perimeter track and extending to cover over 3,000 acres of countryside. The lake is a popular destination for sailing, fishing, cycling and walking with a number of visitors centres, public houses and hotels on its perimeter.

The property is located on the western side of Wing, close to the Conservation Area.
