A Beautifully Presented Victorian Terraced Home with Flexible Accommodation Over Four Floors

This very well maintained and attractively presented Victorian terraced property offers versatile and flexible accommodation arranged over four floors, allowing it to function comfortably as a three- to four-bedroom home. Rich in period character yet thoughtfully updated, this impressive property boasts well-proportioned rooms and a layout ideally suited to modern living.

The property is accessed via a newly fitted front door, opening into a welcoming entrance vestibule with cloaks area and an attractive wooden internal door featuring coloured glass panels. This leads into the entrance hall, which provides access to the living room, dining room, kitchen, and staircase rising to the first-floor landing.

Positioned to the front of the property and enjoying a delightful bay window, the living room is a calm and cosy reception room, featuring a 'Woodwarm' multi-fuel stove set within an ornate tiled surround and hearth. Traditional picture rails and coving further enhance the character of this inviting space.

Further along the hallway is the beautiful dining room, a versatile reception room overlooking the rear garden. An open fire set within a decorative tiled surround and hearth creates a focal point, complemented by integrated cupboards to one side, making this an ideal room for entertaining or family dining.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of cream shaker-style wall and base units, topped with solid wood work surfaces and upstands. Integrated appliances include an eye-level oven and microwave, dishwasher, and a five-ring induction hob with extractor above. Additional features include under-unit lighting, a side-aspect window, and a 1.5 ceramic sink with drainer and mixer tap. A beautifully preserved 'Aligo' range (not in use) adds further charm and character. A door from the kitchen leads down to the cellar, an excellent space with deceptive head height and housing the original coal store.

From the kitchen, access is provided to a useful utility area with a fully glazed door to the rear garden. The utility offers space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer, room for a fridge/freezer, and doors leading to the downstairs WC and sun room. The WC comprises a WC and basin, while the sun room provides a wonderful additional reception space—ideal for relaxing and enjoying a peaceful outlook over the garden. The ground floor benefits from recently fitted floor coverings to the living room, with oak flooring to the hallway and kitchen.

The staircase rises from the entrance hall to a split-level first-floor landing. From the rear landing, there is access to a beautifully appointed family bathroom, fitted just two years ago and comprising a large bath, walk-in shower, WC, and basin set within a vanity unit. The room is fully panelled and finished with a heated towel rail. Also to this level is a rear-aspect room, ideal for use as an office, hobby room, or snug.

To the front landing are three bedrooms, including two good-sized double rooms, both featuring attractive fireplaces, and a charming single bedroom. A generously shelved cupboard provides additional storage, while a further door leads to the staircase rising to the attic room. The attic room is a spacious and versatile room, currently used as a bedroom and featuring a Velux window and useful storage cupboard.

Please note: it is unlikely this room complies with current building regulations for use as a bedroom.

Externally, the property enjoys low-maintenance gardens to both the front and rear. The rear garden benefits from gated access to the street behind (Bellevue) and features a sheltered undercover area, along with a gravelled garden providing ample space for seating and potted plants. To the rear of the sun room, there is additional space suitable for seating or a garden shed.

Attractive both inside and out, this is a charming and flexible Victorian home that has been carefully maintained and enhanced, offering generous accommodation and character throughout.
