Property Description

DESCRIPTION On the market now is this beautifully presented 4 double bedroom house located on Peak House Road. To the front you have a lovely home with great curb appeal with off street parking for several vehicles and a large integral garage. Downstairs you first access the porch which leads you in the hallway - off here you have the large dual aspect living room. Currently kept as a living/dining room, this room benefits from light either side including an amazing bay window; you can benefit from the electric fire place centrally located, perfect for winter months. Next is the kitchen, in here you have a good amount of storage space, an integrated oven, hob and dishwasher and an amazing view over the garden. This home benefits from a separate utility off the kitchen which has the convenience of offering space for a double fridge and washing machine whilst also giving another method to access the garden and the garage internally. The garage is surprisingly large being great for storage or parking larger vehicles - it also holds the boiler keeping it out of way from the rest of the house. Upstairs you have a large landing leading to four double bedrooms. The master is my favorite, having in-built cupboards, a bay window and the luxury of an En-suite! Also upstairs is the family bathroom, having both a walk-in shower and corner bath tub. Lastly, is the garden. Incorporating the modern needs but keeping the mature look this garden has both the size and looks to ensure you're needing nothing more. With patio at the front and back of the garden to catch the sun regardless of occasion along with a long stretch of lawn bordered by shrubs - this garden is a must see in summer!

This home won't last for long, having a great feel on top of ticking the boxes for most families looking for the next home, this is a must see before you miss out. If you're interested call or email now to confirm a time!
