Description

The property comprises a secure 0.6-acre site currently used for storage, divided into two distinct sections. The entire site is enclosed with perimeter fencing and benefits from a gated entrance with security provisions. The right-hand portion of the site features a hard-standing surface, along with several portable buildings situated toward the front, supported by existing utility connections. The left-hand section offers a landscaped area consisting of grass, mature trees, and shrubs, providing natural screening. A brook runs along the rear boundary of the site, enhancing its setting.

The open storage site is available from 1st April 2026. There will be a small area fenced off inside the entrance to the left hand side which will be retained by the landlord.

Location

The property is situated on Old Risborough Road, just off the A4010 between Princes Risborough and Aylesbury. It lies immediately adjacent to ongoing HS2 works, and as a result, Old Risborough Road now functions as a no-through road beyond the property.

The new Stoke Mandeville Relief Road is now open which means access to the property is via Stoke Mandeville Village. What Three Words: ///makeovers.flap.pickle
