Description

A charming two-bedroom terraced home ideally positioned in the heart of Rickmansworth, just a stone's throw from the town centre, excellent transport links, and schools. Offered to the market with no onward chain, this property blends convenience with comfortable living.

A welcoming porch opens into a bright front-aspect sitting room, which in turn leads through to the dining room, featuring stairs leading to the first floor. To the rear, the kitchen enjoys views over the garden and provides a good range of fitted units along with space for integrated appliances.

Upstairs, the property offers two well-appointed bedrooms and a family bathroom.

The block-paved rear garden is bordered by mature shrubs and flower beds, creating a pleasant outdoor space. Beyond the garden, a covered car port with an allocated parking space is accessible via electric doors. To the front, the property benefits from a neat front garden. The home also benefits from a newly installed, well-insulated roof.

This well-located home presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors seeking a central Rickmansworth property with great potential.

Location

Rickmansworth town centre has a wide range of boutique shops, coffee houses, restaurants and major supermarkets. The Metropolitan and Chiltern line train services connect you to London Baker Street, Marylebone Station and beyond. The M25 motorway is available at both junction 17 and 18, connecting you to the national motorway network. Major London airports are also within reach. The area is well served for good quality private and state schools for all ages. Chorleywood and Rickmansworth offer everything for the sporting individual from rugby, cricket, football, tennis, horse riding and golf. Rickmansworth Aquadrome is an ideal setting for walks, sailing, fishing and water skiing.
