Beccles, the Waveney Valley Market Town provides a full range of amenities and has a train station with services to Ipswich and London. The River Waveney which links to the southern part of the Broads network flows through Beccles providing boating opportunities. Norwich is some 16 miles away and offers a full range of amenities and Loddon a service village offers a number of amenities and is about 6 miles to the north west.

SETTING THE SCENE

Metal gates open to the driveway area, with lawned gardens to front, and access to the shared sewerage treatment plant. The drive continues to the side, where a garage outbuilding can be found.

THE GRAND TOUR

The front entrance porch takes you to the hall entrance with an attractive tiled flooring and door to the main sitting room. With wood effect flooring under foot, a feature fire place includes a cast iron wood burner with back boiler, whilst offering views to front. The inner hall leads to the further ground floor accommodation and stairs which rise to the first floor. To your right the kitchen can be found, with space for an electric cooker and further appliances. Tiled splash backs run around the work surface, with a window facing to rear and cupboard to the far end. Opposite, a newly fitted bathroom can be found, finished with stunning tiled splash backs and a period style three piece suite, including a shower over the bath and heated towel rail. The conservatory to the rear extends the living space in the summer months, with a radiator from the back boiler, and full height windows and doors to all sides.

Upstairs, the carpeted landing leads to three bedrooms, two are comfortable doubles and one a single - all boasting outstanding views, with fitted carpet.
