Description:

An exceptional beach style residence combining character, craftsmanship, and contemporary comfort. Built from warm cedar wood and locally sourced Selsey red brick, the property, which has a newly replaced roof, features a striking elevated deck with views out to sea, a spacious wrap-around garden, and parking for 4 cars.

At the heart of the property is an open-plan kitchen, dining, and lounge area with open fireplace, and floor to-ceiling windows spanning the full width of the property offering breath taking sea views from every angle.

The modern spacious kitchen is well fitted and includes a 6-hob gas range, twin electric oven/grill and overhead extractor, integrated fridge/freezer & dishwasher, Belfast sink and breakfast bar with space for a dining table and chairs.

The property has 4 generous bedrooms, 3 contemporary bathrooms with walk in showers (one having a large corner bath) a separate cloakroom and a utility room with space for further appliances.

Location:

Selsey is a popular seaside town located at the southernmost point of the Manhood Peninsula, approximately 8 miles south of Chichester. Known for its maritime heritage, working fishing fleet, and relaxed pace of life, Selsey offers a distinctive coastal atmosphere with a strong sense of community.

East Beach is one of Selsey's most desirable areas, renowned for its uninterrupted sea views, wide shingle beach, and direct access to the English Channel. The East Beach promenade runs along the waterfront, providing a scenic route for walking, cycling, and enjoying the coastal environment. The area is peaceful, predominantly residential, and well-suited to those seeking a quieter setting within easy reach of local amenities.

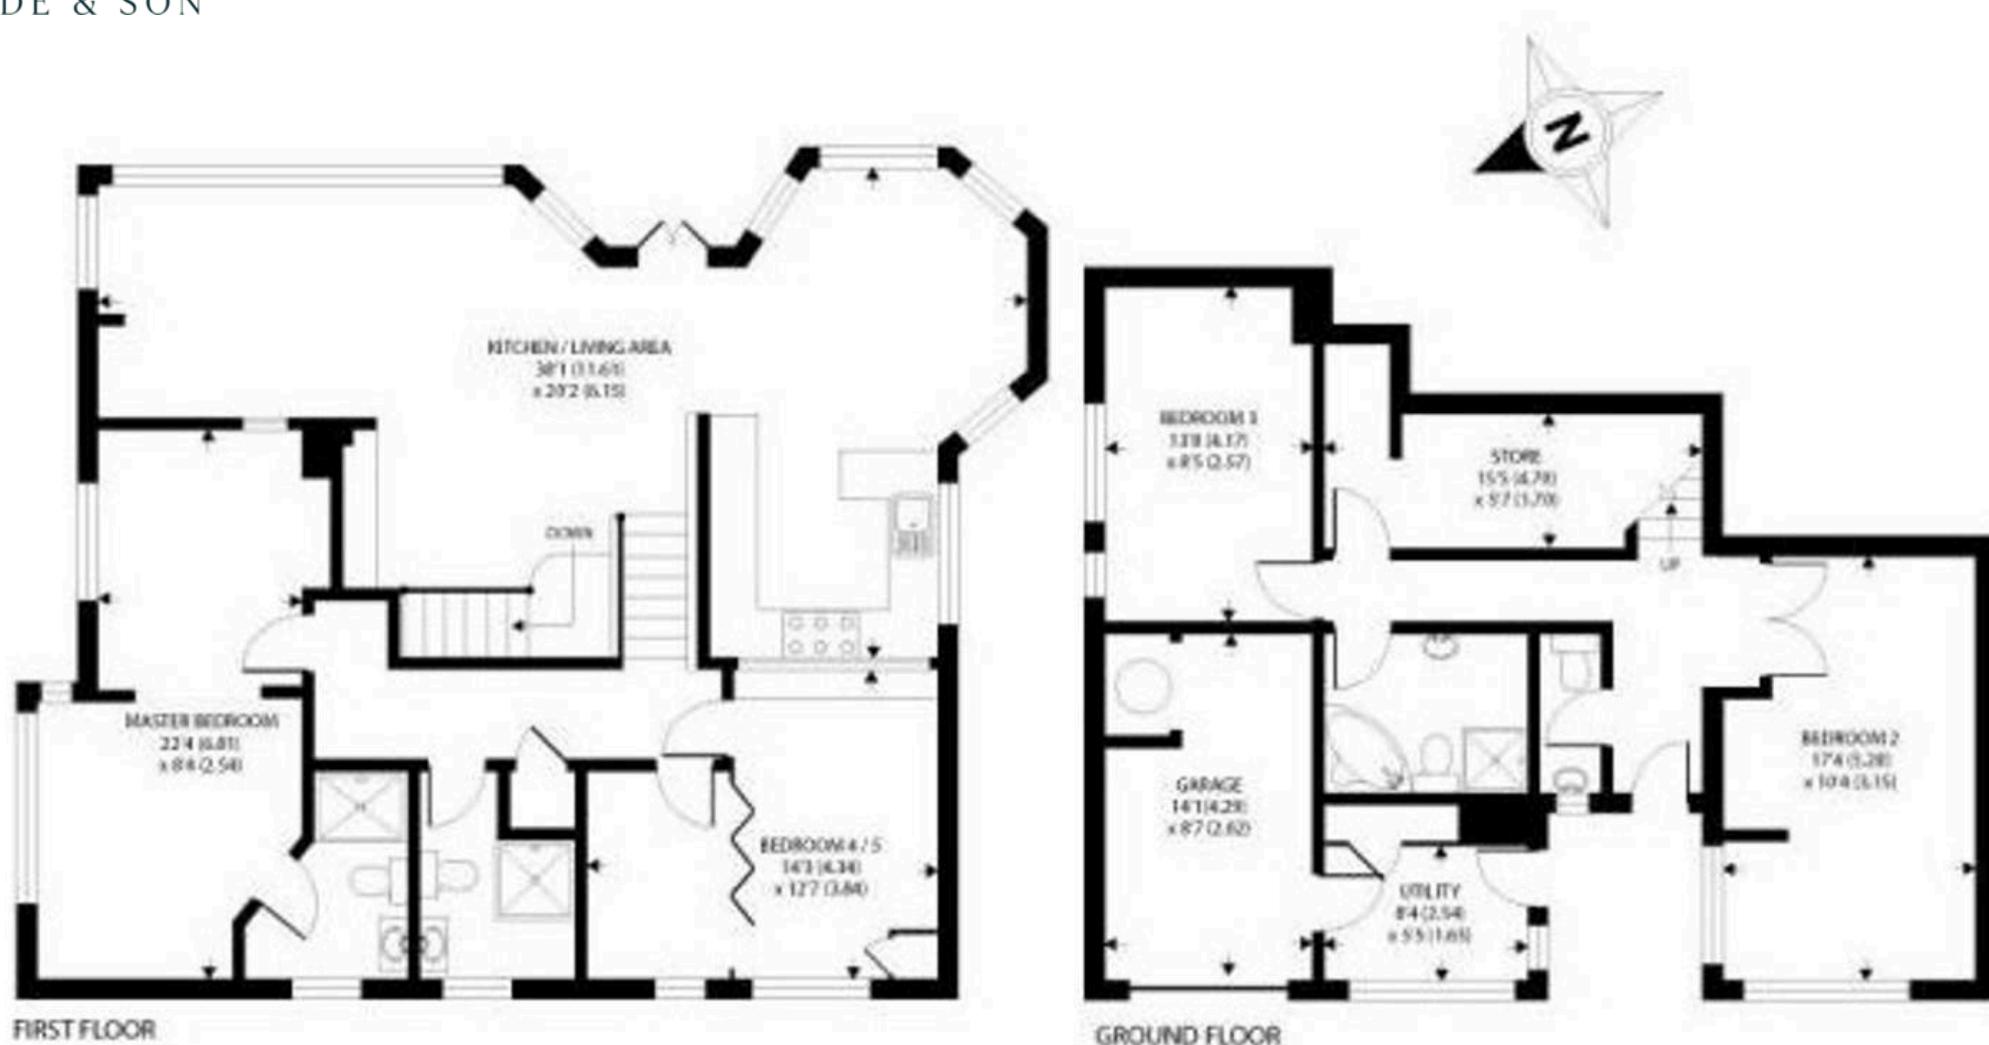

Selsey itself offers a range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and essential services, while nearby Chichester provides broader shopping, cultural, and transport connections, including rail links to London and the South Coast. The surrounding area also offers access to nature reserves, sailing clubs, and the South Downs National Park, making it ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors.
