Every so often, a home comes along that perfectly blends the charm, character and proportions of an older home, mixed with the style and comfort of modern living. This exquisite restoration, tucked away in the heart of Bradninch, is exactly that. Set just a short walk from the village amenities, including the Post Office Stores and the well-regarded Duchy Primary School, this home enjoys a lovely sense of community, while being just a few minutes' drive from Cullompton and its wider facilities. For commuters, Exeter lies only eight miles to the south, and Tiverton Parkway Railway Station offers mainline links to London and beyond.

The blend of old and new is evident from the moment you step through the front door, from the elegant sash windows to the soft oak floors that flow through the ground floor. The welcoming hallway sets the tone, filled with natural light and graceful proportions, leading to a series of flexible living spaces.

The sitting room and living room both feature beautiful Georgian style sash windows (double glazed) and generous dimensions, ideal for quiet evenings or entertaining guests. To the rear, the stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and family area is the true heart of the home, a contemporary space designed for modern living, with sleek handle-less units, integrated appliances, and bi-fold doors opening to a private walled courtyard. A utility room keeps the practicalities neatly out of sight, and there's a dedicated study or home office for those working from home on the ground floor, as well as the all important WC.

Upstairs, the first floor continues the same sense of space and light, with four bedrooms arranged around a bright landing. The principal bedroom has a luxurious en-suite shower room and the three further bedrooms (all doubles) offer flexibility for family, guests or hobbies, alongside a stylish family bathroom.

Outside, the walled courtyard offers a wonderfully private spot for morning coffee or evening dining, opening out from the bi-fold doors from the kitchen/family room, with steps leading to the upper lawned garden. The expansive lawn provides ample space and the sleeper steps lead to raised vegetable plots, a large timber shed and a gate leads to the two private parking spaces beyond.

This is a rare opportunity to own a period home that feels new yet full of history, a home where style meets substance, and every detail has been beautifully considered to make the most of the space on offer.
