REMARKS

Old Mill House is a Victorian Mill, circa 1870, fully renovated within the last ten years. It is situated in the beautiful Tregwynt Valley, in the national park; close to Aberbach and Abermawr Beaches, in 4 Acres of unusually flat land. The Mill sits in a very tranquil and private position and neighbours the Tregwynt Woollen Mill with it's splendid restaurant and cafe. Renovation included a hydrology report that passed 1 in 1000 years of flood risk. Radon mitigation. New foundation with impermeable membrane and insulation. French Oak timbered ceiling. Hemp plasterwork in bedroom and calf cot. Welsh slate roof with double insulation. Bat mitigation. Heated Welsh slate floor and antique pitch pine floor. All new electric and plumbing to present building codes. Appliances include: Smeg range, New Meile washer/dryer, Siemens fridge/freezer, New Neff dishwasher. Antique Belfast sink.

House comprises of 3 Bedrooms. 2 Bathrooms with claw foot bath and shower/steam room. Heated towel rails and extraction fans. 2 Offices. Artist studio/conservatory. High end Finish Multi person steam shower. Underfloor heating throughout ground floor. Upstairs radiators. Bespoke kitchen and carpentry throughout. Oil furnace. Plans passed for solar panels on roof. Fibre optic connectivity. Hardwood windows, also bespoke. Large Barn 60 sq metres with commercial electric supply, highly insulated, polished concrete floors. Good daylight. Great project workshop or for storing of boats.

Old Mill House is an exceptional 2 storey Mill/Barn Conversion which has deceptively spacious character accommodation benefiting from Oil Central Heating, Double Glazing and Roof Insulation. It stands in approximately 4 Acres or thereabouts of Land and is within a few hundred yards or so of Tregwynt Woollen Mill and within three quarters of a mile or so of the North Pembrokeshire Coastline at Abermawr and Aberbach.
