Charming, late Victorian family house located on this popular crescent just north of Stoke Newington Church Street and within a short walk of Stoke Newington overground station. The property offers nicely presented accommodation, full of character with a super, extended kitchen/diner with glass roof, indeed the rear of the house enjoys peaceful, leafy views onto Abney Park cemetery. There are three bedrooms and a good sized bathroom, a 25'6 Reception room retaining ceiling mouldings, ornate cast iron fireplace and stripped wooden floors. The kitchen is a lovely peaceful room, well fitted with access onto a very pretty, west facing patio garden. There is also a cellar for storage and a bike store in the front garden. Both the bathroom and kitchen have underfloor heating and there is the possibility of converting the loft subject to usual planning consents. Listria Park is a very quiet , residential road within a short walk of regular transport into the City and West End with the vibrant selection of local shops, bars and restaurants are also easily accessible.
