A beautifully presented character semi-detached home offering generous and well-balanced accommodation, including two elegant reception rooms, a bespoke breakfast kitchen, ground floor bathroom and three well-proportioned bedrooms. Rich in period detail yet thoughtfully updated for modern family living, the property is ideally located within walking distance of Ashby's historic town centre, schools, parks and countryside walks.

John German

This beautifully presented, characterful semi-detached home has been thoughtfully refurbished by the current owners to create a welcoming and stylish family residence that blends period charm with modern comfort. While the property has been significantly enhanced, it still offers exciting scope for future growth, including the potential for a loft conversion and a two-storey rear extension, subject to the necessary planning permissions. Perfectly positioned within a highly sought-after residential area, the home is just a short stroll from the historic market town of Ashby-de-la-Zouch, with its independent shops, cafés and amenities. Country walks, Western Park and Willesley Primary School are all close at hand, making this an exceptional opportunity for families seeking both lifestyle and location.

Accommodation

Set back from the road behind wrought iron railings and a planted foregarden, a pathway leads to the front door and into an inviting entrance lobby featuring a classic Minton tiled floor. An inner door opens into a striking, long reception hallway, where a bold black and white chequerboard tiled floor immediately sets the tone, complemented by a staircase rising to the first floor.

To the front of the house lies a charming sitting room, bathed in natural light from a double -glazed bay sash window. Period features abound, including an ornate cornice, original ceiling rose and oak flooring underfoot, with a stone fireplace forming a beautiful focal point.

The second reception room is a wonderfully versatile space, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. Offering ample room for seating and dining, it features oak floorboards, a striking black granite decorative fireplace, a useful understairs storage cupboard and a three-quarter height picture rail that adds to the sense of character.

Leading from the dining area is a light-filled corridor with underfloor heating and feature angled roof punctuated by three skylights, creating a seamless transition to the heart of the home. The bespoke painted kitchen is both practical and stylish, fitted with extensive timber cabinetry, granite work surfaces, and space for appliances, along with room for a breakfast table. Tiled flooring and underfloor heating ensure year-round comfort.

Completing the ground floor is a charming rear lobby / boot room with panelled walls, ideal for busy family life, with a rear door opening out to the driveway and gardens. Off the hallway is a superbly appointed family bathroom, finished with full-height complementary tiling, a tiled floor, bath with shower over, WC, wash hand basin and a ladder-style heated towel rail for added luxury.

First Floor - From the reception hallway, stairs rise to the first-floor landing, which provides access to three generously sized bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys a pleasant front aspect and is particularly well proportioned. Bedrooms two and three are both an excellent sizes and benefit from handmade fitted wardrobes, offering practical storage without compromising space.

Outside - To the rear, a shared driveway runs alongside the neighbouring property and leads to a double-width off-road parking area, a small garage/store and a beautifully landscaped garden. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with two patio areas, providing ideal spaces for outdoor dining and relaxation. Enjoying a sunny southerly aspect and a good degree of privacy, it is a delightful extension of the living space during the warmer months.
