

Set in a lovely established location is this spacious, extended semi detached bungalow with modern interior ready to move into. Featuring three double bedrooms, superb bathroom, spacious lounge/diner and a well appointed breakfast kitchen. No Upward Chain.

£275,000

John German

This semi detached bungalow impresses throughout, with a modern interior ready to extend to offer a spacious home, ideal for those seeking a lovely home to downsize to without compromising on space.

The location is a lovely, well established spot handy for local amenities, Stapenhill gardens with beautiful riverside walks and is situated just a short drive from the town centre and shops.

Set behind a double width drive the front door opens into the porch and hallway with doors leading off.

The dining room and lounge are open plan with French doors opening out to the gardens.

The breakfast kitchen is a well appointed with plenty of fitted units, an integrated oven and hob, space for further appliances, window framing garden views and door to the side access.

There is plenty of bedroom space as well, three double bedrooms mean this could also be an ideal family home or the potential to use one as a spacious home office or additional bedroom if only two bedrooms are needed.

The bathroom is well designed with both a bath and separate shower, wc, basin and towel rail/radiator.

To the rear are established gardens with a paved terrace, shaped lawns and borders.
