Set within a quiet residential cul-de-sac and enjoying an outlook towards nearby green space, this two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow offers well-proportioned, single-storey accommodation suited to a wide range of buyers.

The property provides a generous living room positioned to the front of the home, benefiting from good natural light and a pleasant outlook.

Adjacent to this is a practical kitchen, arranged to maximise worktop and cupboard space and offering a straightforward layout for everyday use.

There are two genuine double bedrooms, both located to the rear of the bungalow, providing flexibility for use as a main bedroom, guest room, dining room or home office depending on individual requirements.

The bathroom has been adapted to include a walk-in shower, making the layout particularly appealing to those seeking comfortable and accessible ground-floor living.

Outside, the rear garden is enclosed and includes a detached summerhouse.

The space offers a pleasant layout and a good sense of privacy, with clear potential for a purchaser to personalise and re-establish it as an attractive outdoor area over time.

Earlier images are included to help demonstrate the garden's proportions and how it can be enjoyed during the spring months.

Amberley Close is a well-regarded cul-de-sac, conveniently positioned close to local green spaces and everyday amenities, making this an excellent option for first-time buyers and downsizers alike.
