The Property

Situated in this quiet and established location is this excellently presented two bedroom apartment. The property is within a short walk of public transport and the centre of Broadstone. Also within a short distance is the Trailway providing walking and cycling routes to Poole or Wimborne.

This lovingly kept property benefits from a covered entrance porch with store, and then a private entrance via a UPVC double glazed door with stairs to the reception hall leading to a sunny, southerly facing lounge/dining room.

A well equipped kitchen has integrated appliances and space for a breakfast table and chairs. The master bedroom again enjoys a southerly aspect and has fitted wardrobes. There is then a second double bedroom with wardrobes and a white bathroom suite with separate WC. Located on the landing is a double storage cupboard and loft hatch with ladder giving access to the roof space.

The property benefits from a front and side section of garden which has been laid to lawn and in a nearby block is a single garage.
