Lower Chatley Farm & Lakes, Woolverton
Bath

Property Description

A rare opportunity to acquire a farm extending to approx. 65 acres, with two residential properties, a substantial range of barns and stabling, and a floodlit riding arena. Currently operating as a working livery, the property offers flexibility for equestrian, agricultural or alternative uses.

Residences

- Grade II listed farmhouse providing family accommodation.
- Second house, suitable for family, staff or rental.
- Both properties connected to mains water.

Buildings & Facilities

- Covered barn (approx. 75ft x 90ft) with 9 stables and open plan area.
- Barn (approx. 60ft x 45ft), open plan.
- Enclosed building (approx. 30ft x 15ft).
- Stone barn (approx. 70ft x 20ft), enclosed.
- Main yard with 10 stables and wash room.
- Floodlit all-weather riding arena (60m x 30m).

Water Supply

- Private underground reservoir provides drinking water for animals.
- River Frome runs through the property, feeding the lakes.

Lakes & Lodge Park

- Approx. 5 acres with two landscaped lakes, including islands and a weir.
- Planning permission in place for a luxury lodge park.

- Landscaped areas surrounding the lakes, providing scope for leisure or tourism use.

Land

Approx. 60 acres of productive pastureland, well suited for grazing and fodder production.

Development Potential

The combination of two dwellings, multiple barns, stabling, 60 acres of pasture and 5 acres with landscaped lakes and planning consent presents strong potential for further development.
