Thorney is an historic village that has a long and varied history that stretched back over 1,000 years, as is mentioned in the Domesday Book. The village has the added attraction of a large central park that offers pleasure to residents of all ages in the village. Thorney also benefits from the Duke Of Bedford Junior school, local shops and a doctors surgery.

Peterborough is only about a 20 minute journey away (9 miles), and the village also boars the famous

Duke of Bedford Cottages, erected for Victorian farm workers. The village can also boast its very own Abbey.
