Why you'll like it

CASH BUYERS ONLY This three-bedroom terraced house is offered for sale on a cash-only basis and represents a full renovation project in Keighley. The property includes one separate reception room with a large window, a kitchen space requiring a full installation with no current units or appliances, and a bathroom in need of modernisation. Two double bedrooms are provided, including an attic room, along with one single bedroom. There is also a cellar and a yard to the rear.

The house is situated in Keighley, within reach of local amenities, shops and everyday services in and around the town centre. Nearby parks provide green space for walking and leisure, adding to the appeal of the location.

Keighley enjoys good public transport connections. Keighley railway station provides services to Leeds and Bradford, with typical journey times of around 30–40 minutes, making the area practical for commuters or those needing regular access to larger centres. There are also bus routes linking Keighley with surrounding towns in West Yorkshire.

This property may suit first-time buyers looking for a renovation opportunity, as well as investors seeking a project in an area with established local amenities and public transport links. The presence of some gas central heating in certain rooms offers a starting point for refurbishment, although comprehensive works will be required throughout.
