Living Room

Stepping into the entrance hall, there is practical space for coats and shoes, with the boiler conveniently positioned here. Immediately to the left is Bedroom one, a double bedroom with a front aspect window and its own en-suite comprising shower, WC and wash hand basin.

The inner hall lies ahead and features patio doors opening onto the garden, creating an easy flow between indoor and outdoor living. From here, two staircases lead to the upper levels, while another staircase descends to the lower ground floor.

The first staircase rises to the sitting room, a welcoming room with a feature fireplace and front aspect windows enjoying pleasant views. From the sitting room, you are led into the second kitchen, with oven, four-ring hob, and a range of wall and base units, complemented by dual aspect windows. A further staircase continues up to the second floor.

On the second floor are bedroom two and bedroom three. Bedroom two is a double room with rear aspect windows providing a lovely view of fells and useful eaves storage with a separate W.C. and sink, while bedroom three benefits from front aspect windows and good natural light.

Back on the first floor, a few steps lead down to the family bathroom, fitted with a bath with shower over, WC and wash hand basin. Adjacent is the living room, featuring dual aspect windows and a fireplace, creating a comfortable and inviting space.

From the inner hall, stairs descend to the kitchen on the lower ground floor. The kitchen offers space for a dining table, room for appliances, a handy understairs cupboard and internal access to the garage. The garage provides off-road parking along with additional storage.

Externally, the garden has been designed for low maintenance and includes a patio seating area, planted borders with established shrubs for privacy, and a pond feature, making it an enjoyable outdoor area.

A unique and character-filled home in a highly desirable location, Barnside offers excellent potential for its next owner to personalise and enjoy.

An additional workshop is available by separate negotiation. Positioned adjacent to the main property, this versatile space offers excellent potential for a variety of uses, including storage, hobby space, or business purposes. Subject to the necessary consents, it may also provide an opportunity to extend the existing property or further enhance the workshop accommodation.
