A charming Victorian bay-fronted home, rich in history, having been occupied by the same family since its original construction in 1888, and offering exciting potential for extension in the highly sought-after Poets Corner district of Hove.

This attractive period property provides well-balanced accommodation arranged over two floors. The ground floor features two separate reception rooms, including a bright, south-facing living room that enjoys excellent natural light throughout the day, alongside a separate kitchen to the rear.

On the first floor, there are two generous double bedrooms and a spacious family bathroom, offering comfortable and practical living space. The layout also presents excellent scope for extension or reconfiguration, subject to the necessary consents, allowing purchasers to create a bespoke home tailored to their needs.

Externally, the property benefits from a private patio garden, providing a peaceful outdoor retreat ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

Situated within the ever-popular Poets Corner district, the home is just a short walk from Hove seafront and the mainline railway station, offering excellent commuter links. A wide array of independent shops, cafés, and eateries are also close at hand, creating a vibrant and highly desirable lifestyle setting.
