A beautiful 1930's Cotswold Stone family home situated in one of Maidenhead's most exclusive private roads next to the River Thames. The spacious 2,600 sq ft property was originally the carriage house of a large estate and has been vastly updated and improved upon by the current owners, whilst retaining the character of the building.

The accommodation includes a stunning open plan living space, with bi-fold doors opening on to the courtyard garden - an ideal place for summer entertaining. There is a well-appointed kitchen, four well-proportioned bedrooms, family bathroom and a large attic room - ideal for conversion. The large garden is approx 120' and is located opposite the property; mainly laid to lawn, the garden provides a good degree of seclusion and is well-enclosed - to the front, there is parking on the driveway.

Situated on a private riverside road with only seven other properties and appx 25 minutes to Heathrow, a short drive to the M4 and easy access to the Elizabeth Line for the daily commute.
