Description: The Beach House, 4 Old World Cottages is a detached house of brick and timber frame construction, with a mix of UPVC double glazed and timber casement windows beneath a pitched tiled roof. The property is accessed off New Lydd Road with a gravel driveway providing off street parking for a number vehicles. A central front enclosed porch provides access into the property, with secondary front door opening into a small entrance hallway. Accessed from the hallway is the main living room with brick fireplace with wood burner and double aspect windows including bi-fold doors leading out to the garden. The kitchen is also accessed from the hall with cream units with laminate worktops, stainless steel sink, space for an electric cooker, space for a fridge and space and plumbing for a washing machine. The kitchen benefits from double aspect windows and a stable door that opens out to the garden. Next to the kitchen is a shower room with walk-in shower and wall hung washbasin with vanity unit below. A separate ground floor cloakroom/WC is also accessed from the hallway. Stairs lead from the entrance hall up to a first-floor landing off which are three double bedrooms all with south front facing windows looking towards the sand dunes. A first floor WC is situated at the end of the landing with close coupled WC and wall hung washbasin.

Externally the property enjoys the benefits of generous off-street parking at the front of the property while at the rear is a paved seating area looking out over a lawn garden. There are two timber frame garden sheds the first at the side of the paved seating area that can be used as a bar and the second shed situated at the rear of the garden.
