1 Castle View The Bridge

Narberth

This property has the Wow-Factor! A stylish semi-detached house which has been modernised to provide exceptional accommodation with a blend of modern and traditional styles, creating atmospheric ambience and sophistication, which must be seen to be appreciated. From the main living area, with its roaring wood burner and exposed beams, to the luxury bathroom with freestanding bath and large walk-in shower, the current owner has meticulously improved and showcased this lovely home to the highest standards. Externally, the design and impeccable detail continues with a sensational landscaped modern garden, providing a wonderful private sanctuary to enjoy and chill out. There is also ample off road gated parking to the front and side, making this a complete ideal home. Viewing is essential!

Situation

The property is situated on the south side of Narberth town, within uphill walking distance to the towns shops, services and amenities. The location is very convenient, yet away from the actual bustling centre of town. From this location, easy road access on to the new A40 leads to Haverfordwest or Carmarthen, or heading south along the A478 leading to the South Coast beaches and resorts of Saundersfoot and Tenby.
