Description

Nestled on a quiet country lane in the sought-after village of Bovingdon, The Acorn is a charming Grade II listed cottage set behind electric gates with a generous driveway and EV charging point in the garage. Offering approximately 4.8 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens maintained by gardeners and paddocks, this characterful home provides spacious and versatile living throughout.

The ground floor includes a welcoming double reception room with a striking inglenook fireplace and log burner, opening directly onto the garden via patio doors. There is a formal dining room and a separate breakfast room. The kitchen has been stylishly refurbished and links to a spacious utility room via a glass walkway. The ground floor also benefits from a cloakroom and a cellar for additional storage.

Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms, including a principal suite with triple-aspect views and a vaulted-ceiling bedroom.

A detached outbuilding offers a garage, workshop/store, and a self-contained annexe with kitchenette and bathroom.

Additional amenities include two horse paddocks with stabling and a tack room, a detached garden room ideal for a home office, and two further stables suitable for storing larger items.

Location

Bovingdon is a delightful village with a charming rural atmosphere, situated in Hertfordshire and conveniently close to the larger towns of Berkhamsted and Hemel Hempstead. The village offers a variety of local amenities, including traditional pubs, shops, and a selection of independent businesses, all close to a picturesque village green.

Surrounded by beautiful countryside, Bovingdon provides ample opportunities for outdoor exploration and leisure. The area also benefits from an excellent choice of schools, both state and independent, catering to a range of educational needs.
