The Property

The front door opens in the hallway with attractive tiled floor and stairs leading up to the first floor with storage under. On the right hand side double doors open into the sitting room, a wonderfully bright and spacious room with window to the front aspect and attractive feature fireplace with storage and shelving either side. Back into the hallway a door leads into the dining room which again is a good size with a window to the side aspect and a door into the kitchen. The kitchen has space for a table and chairs and is well fitted with a matching range of wall, base and drawer units, ample work top space with stainless steel sink and space for appliances. A window overlooks the side and there is a wall mounted gas fired boiler. The lobby to the rear opens into the courtyard garden. Stairs rise to the first floor landing where you will find three bedrooms as well as a study room. The bathroom is situated at the end of the landing with suite comprising panelled bath with shower over and glazed screen, WC and pedestal wash hand basin.

Outside

To the front of the property there is a low brick wall with a wrought iron gate and steps up to the entrance door. There is a courtyard garden to the rear with two useful brick-built sheds offering storage. Although the property has no off-road parking there is plenty of free parking nearby.

Location

The property is situated in the centre of the bustling market town of Harleston. Nestled in the beautiful Waveney Valley on the old coaching route from London to Great Yarmouth, Harleston is a vibrant market town, filled with historic buildings, a beautiful church and plenty of character around every corner you turn. With good local schooling here, as well as in Stradbroke and Bungay the town further boasts an impressive array of independent shops, doctor's surgery, post office, chemist and several coffee shops. There is also a popular Wednesday market with free parking and the town of Diss, just a 15 minute drive away, boasts a direct train line to London Liverpool Street.
