Riverside House, Grantshouse, TD11 3RP

LOCATION:

The property is situated in a rural position close to the small Borders village of Grantshouse in Berwickshire, within the Scottish Borders. Grantshouse lies just off the A1, making it a particularly convenient location for those travelling between Edinburgh and Newcastle while still enjoying the tranquillity of the surrounding countryside. Nearby is the popular roadside eatery the Cedar Cafe, a well-known stopping point for both locals and travellers along the A1, offering home-cooked meals, coffee and cakes. The surrounding area offers attractive rolling countryside typical of the Berwickshire landscape, with a range of walking routes and outdoor pursuits available along the nearby coastline and rural hinterland. The village of Reston lies approx. 6 miles south-east along the A1 which has a mainline railway station which was opened in 2022. The property lies almost equidistant on the A1 between the historic Northumberland town of Berwick-upon-Tweed and the East Lothian coastal town of Dunbar, both of which have further amenities and mainline railway stations on the East Coast Main Line.

DESCRIPTION:

This substantial family home offers flexible and generously proportioned accommodation and was previously operated as a successful bed and breakfast by the current owners, benefiting from its convenient proximity to the A1 trunk road. The property provides up to seven potential bedrooms, although some rooms are currently used for alternative purposes. These include a study, a first-floor living room, and a kitchenette on the first floor, offering excellent versatility for modern family living or guest accommodation. Three of the bedrooms feature en-suite facilities, with the principal bedroom also benefiting from a dressing area. In addition, there is a family bathroom and a ground-floor shower room, ensuring ample facilities for a large household or visiting guests. The ground floor also includes a spacious living and dining room, a large breakfasting kitchen, a useful utility room, and a welcoming entrance hall with plenty of storage. With an internal floor area of approximately 206 square metres, the home offers generous living space for families of all sizes.

EXTERNALLY:

The property enjoys a charming position between Howpark Road and the gently flowing Howpark Burn, creating a peaceful and picturesque setting. Ample parking is available to the side, with additional parking to the rear, along with access to garage buildings for added practicality. A pathway runs between the burn and the house, conveniently linking the front and rear garden areas. The south-west facing front garden is designed for low maintenance, featuring gravel and artificial grass, complemented by a selection of perennials that add a touch of colour throughout the seasons. The garden is enclosed by an attractive decorative brick and cast iron boundary, making it an ideal space for entertaining. A covered pergola and a charming brick-built pizza oven further enhance the outdoor living experience, perfect for enjoying time with family and friends.

SERVICES:

Mains Electric, Water & Drainage.
