Knights Road
Oxford

Property Description

Upon entering the property, there is a hallway with a door leading to a front-facing living room. Off the living room is a kitchen/dining room, which features a side door and sliding doors at the rear that provide access to the garden.

Stairs from the hallway lead to the first floor, which comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms, all three of which include built-in cupboards and a family bathroom.

Externally, the property offers driveway parking, a shed, a store and a generous westerly-facing rear garden with a patio, lawn, trees, shrubs and other planted features.

Blackbird Leys is a residential area located to the southeast of Oxford, offering convenient access to key employment hubs such as the BMW Mini Plant and the Oxford Science Park. The area benefits from a range of local amenities, including supermarkets, schools, healthcare facilities and leisure spaces. Well-served by public transport, Blackbird Leys provides regular bus routes into Oxford city centre and surrounding areas. Additionally, its proximity to the Eastern Bypass allows for easy access to major road networks, making it an ideal location for commuters.
