

Northumberland
Properties

Caistron Cottages, Thropton
£295,000

Caistron Cottages

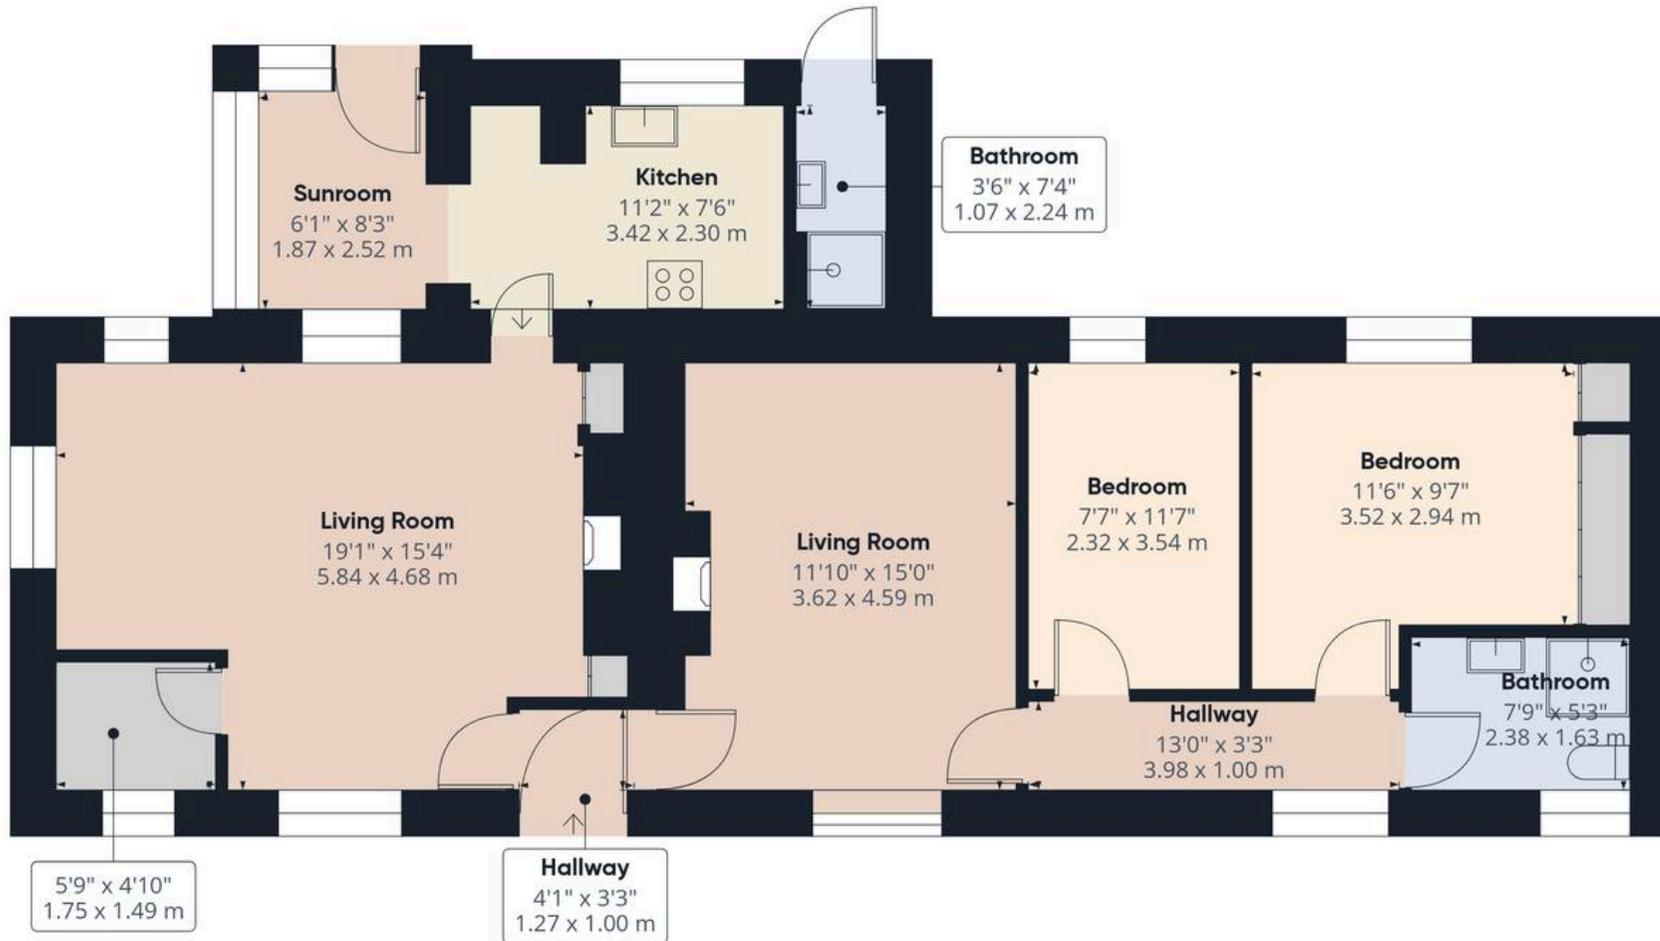

Thropton, Morpeth

Council Tax band: C

Tenure: Freehold

- Idyllic setting in Caistron, Thropton, surrounded by the stunning Northumberland countryside
- Stone built, two bedroom cottage full of character
- Beautifully manicured gardens with sweeping views over rolling hills
- Open plan Living/Dining room with log burner
- Two versatile reception rooms offering flexible living or working space
- Perfect for countryside lovers, with scenic walks and outdoor adventures right on the doorstep
- Close proximity to nearby villages and local amenities
- Ideal for those looking for single story living or a second home/holiday let in rural Northumberland

Approximate total area⁽¹⁾

961 ft²
89.3 m²

(1) Excluding balconies and terraces

Calculations reference the RICS IPMS 3C standard. Measurements are approximate and not to scale. This floor plan is intended for illustration only.

GIRAFFE 360

The location is a haven for nature lovers, walkers, and outdoor enthusiasts, with an abundance of scenic trails, cycling routes, and wildlife right on your doorstep. It sits within the beautiful Coquet Valley in Northumberland and is surrounded by open countryside, rolling hills, and farmland. Nearby, Rothbury offers a range of amenities, independent shops, cafés and access to attractions such as the stunning Northumberland National Park and the historic Cragside estate, making this an exceptional opportunity to embrace countryside living at its finest.

Northumberland Properties

12 Market Street, Alnwick - NE66 1TL

01665660910 • info@northumberlandproperties.co.uk • www.northumberlandproperties.co.uk

Northumberland
Properties