Hingham

DISCOVER THIS 18TH CENTURY
"LITTLE LONDON"

With grand Georgian architecture surrounding its market place and town green, Hingham lies in the heart of rural Norfolk.

In the 18th century, Hingham earned the nickname "Little London" when members of high society chose to build elegant homes and settle here, bringing with them a refined charm that still shapes the town today.

The local shops reflect the character of a traditional market town while offering everything needed for modern life. Despite the easy reach and appeal of nearby Norwich, Hingham continues to thrive with a strong sense of community and independence. Amenities include a family butcher, The White Hart pub, a well-regarded primary school, library, Lincoln's of Hingham café, excellent health centre, doctors' surgery, dentist, and a brilliant Sports Centre with a wide range of activities and a Social Club. Regular bus services connect Hingham to Wymondham, Attleborough, Watton, Dereham, and Norwich.

Just 6.7 miles away, Wymondham is a vibrant and historic market town with a wide selection of amenities, highly regarded schools, supermarkets, independent shops, pubs and cafés. It also benefits from a direct train line to Norwich and Cambridge, making it ideal for commuters and day-trippers alike.

Norwich itself lies just 17 miles away, offering a rich mix of cultural attractions, shopping, dining and travel connections, including an international airport.
