WHY GREAT CORBY?

A pretty village near Carlisle, Great Corby offers a blend of rural tranquillity and convenient access to amenities. Nestled in the picturesque Cumbrian countryside there is easy access to nearby woodland walks and the River Eden. One of the highlights is the scenic walk to the neighbouring village of Wetheral, which takes you across an impressive Victorian railway viaduct over the river, offering breath taking views. The village is also home to a highly regarded primary school. With its strong sense of community and proximity to Carlisle, the M6 motorway and A69, Great Corby is perfect for those seeking a peaceful yet connected way of life. Our region's areas of natural and historic interest are easily accessible, and these include The Lake District, Hadrian's Wall, Eden Valley, Solway Coast and Scottish Borders.

DESCRIPTION

The Barn is an interesting split-level conversion providing generous accommodation on predominantly one level. The approach is through a squared archway into an open courtyard with parking and open double garage. On the ground floor is an attractive entrance lobby, a single bedroom/study and stairs to the first floor. The living space is excellent. The beautiful sitting room has a private dual aspect onto the garden and large southwest facing terrace. The fireplace has a built-in stove. The dining room is a generous affair with good natural light provided by two double glazed windows. The breakfast kitchen has a range of sleek fitted units and an island. It enjoys a favourable aspect to the northeast and has patio doors to the southeast and rear garden. The large, fitted utility room is an important multipurpose space. The spacious main bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and fitted wardrobes to one wall. There are two further double bedrooms, one with fitted wardrobes and a good family bathroom. The private grounds extend to 0.22 acres and of interest is the substantial workshop and store on the ground floor within the original barn.

Total area: approx. 331.4 sq. metres (3567.6 sq. feet)
