Situated at the centre of a 40 acre plot, surrounded by private woodland and approached by a long drive protected by electronic gates, 'The Woods' is a fine Edwardian mansion and represents a unique opportunity to acquire not only a house of real style, calibre and distinction which has retained much of its charm and character but also a very secluded and private position a short drive away from the centre of Sheffield. The property is also conveniently situated for access to the motorway corridor and a relatively easy commute into Leeds & Wakefield. With stabling and a ménage providing equestrian facilities, there is also development potential here for 5 apartments and 2 detached houses (ask for the pre app info) or opportunities for the 'blended' family market to redevelop the accommodation to suit their individual requirements. Either way 'The Woods' provides a spectacular setting which will not fail to impress the discerning purchaser.
