

MARSH & MARSH PROPERTIES

26 Myrtle Avenue, Halifax, HX2 8HS

Offers Around: £125,000

A rare and exciting opportunity to own a fully renovated semi-detached, brick built property. This property has a whole host of features and is offered at a realistic asking price. This property offers a large amount of space throughout and must be viewed internally to be fully appreciated. A property that will be of special interest to a first time buyer, growing family or anyone looking for that something a little special.

The front of the property certainly has a kerb appeal with its elevated position and grass bank leading up to the property. A stone wall borders the front with a small flower garden, again enhancing this property's appeal. To the rear of the property is a good sized, and fully landscaped, south-west facing garden, providing a real sun trap.

Internally this property certainly presents the "wow" factor. A full internal renovation means this property is offered in a condition that any prospective buyer can take immediate possession with no work required. The property benefits from a part internal re-wiring, new Worcester boiler, new gas fire and fireplace. With its large and open living room, that leads directly into a good sized dining room, brand new large fitted kitchen (with all new units and appliances), three large bedrooms that all offer fantastic storage space and a newly fitted bathroom. It is rare that such a delightful property becomes available on the market, especially at such a reasonable asking price.
