An attractive and deceptively spacious, semi-detached three bedroom house constructed approximately four years ago. Located in a quiet tucked away position, the property offers easy access to the centre of Cirencester and having the benefit of off road parking.

Its well-presented accommodation is arranged over three floors and in brief comprises a spacious entrance hall with an adjacent cloakroom, a sitting room to the rear aspect with a charming stone fireplace. An impressive fitted kitchen/breakfast room with limestone flooring with space for a table and chairs, has a range of built in units and integrated appliances and a good amount of storage.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms each with fitted wardrobes and a family bathroom. Stairs lead from the landing to the second floor and a most impressive dual aspect master bedroom.

Additional benefits of this charming home include gas fired central heating, off road parking and an enclosed and private garden.

Amenities

The market town of Cirencester dates back to Roman times and is often referred to as the 'Capital of the Cotswolds'. It is ideally located with the M4, M5 and M40/A40, the mainline train station at Kemble and excellent bus and coach links all within easy reach.

Cirencester benefits from high street stores, independent specialist retailers, a weekly market and there are a number of delightful bistros, cafes, wine bars and public houses to suit all tastes.

There are excellent primary and secondary state schools and a sixth form college campus. There are also good independent schools in the surrounding areas.
