The next steps.....

If you decide that you wish to apply for tenancy of a property, please contact us at Naylor Powell to pay the Administration Fee and to fill in the referencing forms. Once your application has been approved, we will contact you and confirm a move in date.

On the day you collect the keys you will need to: -

- Sign your Tenancy Agreement and Prescribed Information
- Pay the first month's rent and deposit
- Provide your bank details for the standing order mandate
- Provide confirmation of Insurance covering the landlord's fixtures and fittings for accidental damage.
- Bring two forms of identification one photographic such as a passport and one which shows your current address (must be dated within the last 3 months) such as a utility bill or bank statement or landline telephone bill.

Please be aware that the above are conditions of the tenancy; we cannot let any property to applicants without proof of insurance, current address and ID.

Administration Fee

£260

- The Administration Charge covers the cost of referencing one applicant only. If it is necessary to take up references on a second applicant or guarantor, these are charged at £120 for each additional applicant and £120 for each guarantor.
- Please note that the Administration Charge is not refundable

Deposit

£ as per property details

- The deposit is returnable at the end of the tenancy, less £120 for inventory check providing the tenant's responsibilities have been fully obligated.

One month's rent in advance

£ as per property details

The above amounts must be received in cleared funds prior to taking possession of the property i.e. cash, banker's draft, credit card +2% or debit card. If paying by cheque, this must be received 7 working days before keys can be released.

Notes: If the tenancy is subject to housing benefit or the use of a guarantor, the landlord's approval will be required together with, if applicable, the landlord's bank/building society/insurers.

Naylor Powell doesn't just let houses. If you are buying or selling property, need a survey or valuation or general advice, please call us for assistance.
