General Description

Cartwright Hands are delighted to be selling this four bedroom detached house enjoying a pleasant position on this larger than average plot. The property enjoys a delightful aspect to the side across private farm land with grazing sheep and lambs at the head of this cul-de-sac. We would strongly recommend an internal inspection of the property to fully appreciate the wealth of space, enjoying a brick built double glazed conservatory overlooking the rear garden.

The property is well served within a few minutes drive of the M6/M69 motorway network, local schools and bus services as well as the Coventry University hospital.
