The Property

Old Stable Cottage is a 4 bedroom detached house set in an idyllic rural location with breathtaking country views. The property benefits from approximately 17 acres divided into paddocks, woodland and gardens together with outbuildings including workshop and stables with hay store and tack room. Planning permission has been granted for the construction of a detached 4 car garage/store room, for which the base has already been laid, and planning permission has recently expired for a substantial extension to the main house, increasing it to 6 bedrooms.

Location

Llanteg is a small village community in south Pembrokeshire, only 1 mile from the Pembrokeshire Coast National park and 3 miles from Amroth's beautiful beach. There is a good mix of shops, galleries, cafes and restaurants in nearby towns with easy access to the M4 and rail network. The property is only 1 mile from the well respected Tavernspite Junior School and 4 miles from Dyffryn Taf, an award winning comprehensive school in Whitland.

Old Stable Cottage offers the perfect opportunity for a rural retreat, especially for those looking for equestrian facilities.

Directions

roundabout take the A477 towards St Clears. On reaching Llanteg take the left turn, signposted Tavernspite, just before the petrol station and follow this road for 650 metres until you reach Old Stable Cottage on the left hand side.
