Inchbrook is a traditional location reminiscent of its Woollen Mills heritage; it is a small residential community straddling the A46. The surrounding villages offer some well-regarded private and public-sector schools including a Steiner school. To the far side of the valley, across the common is the favoured Minchinhampton Golf Club course, interspersed with several gastro pubs and of course Winstones Ice Cream factory.

The nearest town of Nailsworth is approximately 1 mile away, where you will find coffee shops, cafes and an array of superb restaurants, a small supermarket, delicatessens including the acclaimed Williams Kitchen fish market & food hall, the renowned Hobbs House bakery, plus a wonderfully diverse selection of fashionable boutiques and shops, salons, antiques & furniture shops and galleries for local craftspeople who have an annual arts festival. The town also offers a post office, butchers', grocery shops, doctors, dentists and a public library.

Approximately 3 miles away is Stroud Town offering several good secondary schools including grammar schools, further food, grocery & clothes shopping; cafes, restaurants and bars; leisure activities include 10-Pin Bowling, a Cinema, Leisure Centre. There are plenty of leisure activities on offer too with golf courses, riding stables, bowls club, extensive countryside walks, Salsa classes, gliding and polo clubs.
