An unique opportunity to acquire a stunning property set in approximately 10 acres, in a semi-rural location with breathtaking elevated views over the City. The property was newly constructed in 2008 and truly is a must see.

Graig Goch has been finished and equipped to the highest standards throughout and briefly comprises; a dramatic double-height entrance hall, spacious kitchen/breakfast room, further reception room leading off from the kitchen, additional sitting room, gym and utility room. There are six bedrooms in total; an extensive master bedroom suite with a generous en-suite and two dressing rooms, three further large en-suite bedrooms with the two remaining double bedrooms sharing a Jack & Jill bathroom.

The house itself extends to over 5,000sqft and is in a generous landscaped plot entered via private security gates. There is a large double garage and a large driveway for further parking. The plot is surrounded by approximately 10 acres of rural land to the front and rear of the property.

Please view our Virtual tour and a fully immersive 3D VR tour is available upon request.
