SITUATION AND AMENITIES

Fremington is a very popular North Devon village which benefits from a good selection of amenities which include a primary school, church, choice of public houses, Chinese restaurant, fish and chip shop, small supermarket/post office, hair dressers, doctor's surgery, dentist, nursing home, village hall, sports field and a very regular bus service connecting with Bideford and Barnstaple. Nearby Fremington Quay is a favoured rest point to take in the view over water towards Saunton Sands and located on the Tarka Trail, a popular footpath and cycle track extending around the estuary. The village is almost equidistant between the port and market town of Bideford and North Devon's Regional centre of Barnstaple. Both offer a good selection of shops and amenities, Barnstaple connects with the M5 Motorway via the A361 North Devon Link Road and is approximately an hour drive away as is Tiverton Parkway main line railway station where London Paddington can be reached in about 2 hours.

DESCRIPTION

Company Road is an attractive crescent shaped road overlooking a communal area of park like grounds to the front interspersed with some lovely mature trees on the fringe of the Waters Edge development quietly tucked away between Fremington Village Centre and Fremington Quay/the Taw Estuary. The site was originally an army camp hence the names of the roads which are all military orientated. This particular property was built by Barratt homes in 2015 and therefore benefits from the remainder of the existing 10year NHBC. The house presents elevations which are partly rendered, partly brick relived in stone with double glazing beneath a slate roof. Internally the accommodation is extremely well presented and complimented by the landscaped rear garden which is very attractive and enjoys a good deal of seclusion and privacy. The layout of the accommodation with approximate dimensions is more clearly identified on the accompanying floorplan but comprises.
