

Southdown Marina | Millbrook | Torpoint | PL10 1HG

In Region Of £80,000

An outstanding conversion from fishing trawler to house boat.

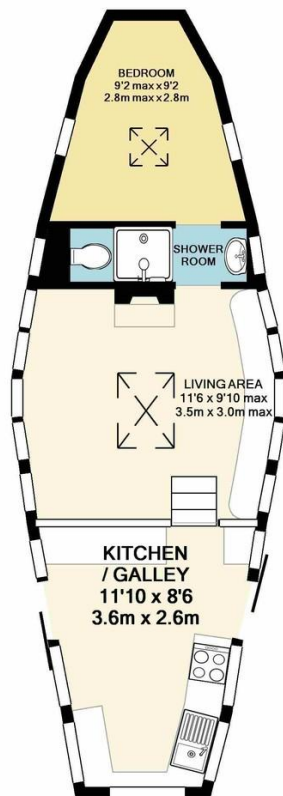

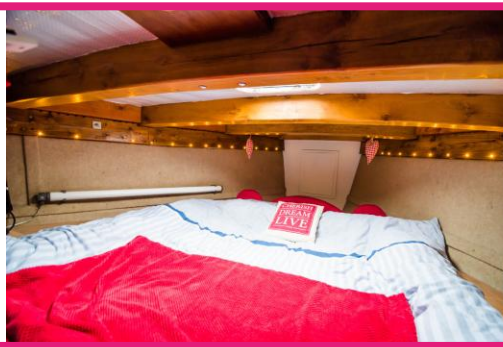

This sea going vessel has been beautifully converted and restored into a fully functional house boat, offering a bright and airy wheelhouse / galley kitchen, cosy living area with log burning stove, shower room and double bedroom.

The over all presentation of this interesting home is delightful and needs to be seen to be fully appreciated.

Edna Ma is currently berthed at Southdown Marina, Millbrook, which offers all the usual marina facilities that you'd expect.

Situated within the Rame Peninsular and being within an easy commute to Plymouth City Centre.
