WHITE HORSE FARM

A detached five bedroomed house nestled in a secluded location, away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, offering some of the county's finest views over miles of rolling Monmouthshire countryside which also includes professional standard equestrian facilities in the heart of equine sporting country all set within 50 acres of land together with an extensive range of outbuildings and a 25m x 54m all-weather floodlit outdoor arena.

As you drive down the long country lane you begin to wonder what to expect and once you pass through the electronically operated gates the house, equestrian facilities, gardens and grounds will not disappoint. The sweeping driveway beyond the gates is flanked by large ornamental pond and established shrubs terminating in spacious parking/turning area. There is excellent hacking and walking locally through the quiet country lanes and further to Wentwood Forest. Further sporting activities such as angling, shooting, golf etc are all well catered for locally. Chepstow is approximately 8 miles distant giving access to the M48 for commuting to Bristol, Bath and London. Also within close proximity is Chepstow Racecourse and Piercefield Park which hosts Chepstow Horse Trials annually and includes the Burghley Young Event Horse Qualifier and the David Broome Event Centre which holds a wide variety of major equestrian events throughout the year including show jumping and dressage.

Good primary schooling can be found in Shirenewton and Usk and senior schooling in Chepstow, with private schooling facilities in Monmouth, Newport and Bristol.
