Property Description

SITUATION

Perhaps being one of the best roads in Diss, the property is found to the northern outskirts of the town upon Walcot Road having a lovely assortment of many period and modern properties within a short/easy walking distance of the town centre, railway station and open rural countryside. The opposite side of Walcot Road there are many pleasing rural countryside walks with surrounding farmland. The historic market town of Diss is found on the South Norfolk borders and within the beautiful countryside surrounding the Waveney Valley, the town offers an extensive and diverse range of many day to day amenities and facilities along with the benefit of a mainline railway station with regular/direct services to London Liverpool Street and Norwich.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises of a two bedroom semi-detached Victorian cottage being of traditional construction for the time and with a pleasing brick façade under a pitched clay tiled roof. The property is heated by a modern gas fired combination boiler via radiators. Internally the property offers pleasing accommodation in the regions of 800 sq ft. The Agent does advise the property is in need of redecoration as seen from the photographs and recommends viewing to fully appreciate the works but also position and further scope.

EXTERNALLY

The property is set back off the road with there being a drop kerb and wrought iron gates giving access to the ability of having two off-road car parking spaces. With side access the rear gardens can be found which are of a most generous size being predominantly laid to lawn and enjoying a southerly aspect with a leafy green outlook giving tranquil views.
