Location:

Sea View Road is centrally located for local shops and amenities and walking distance to the Sea View beauty spot with fabulous views over the harbour and the Purbeck hills beyond. Good transport links into Poole just over two miles from the centre of Historic Poole including its beautifully kept Poole Park with its boating lake, tennis courts, and bowling green. Poole General Hospital, fitness centres, bars, cinema, theatre, restaurants, and shopping centre. There are the local Blue Flag beaches of Bournemouth and Sandbanks for the sun worshippers in the family and Poole's local marinas for the boating enthusiasts. Access to the area is well served by all modes of transport, with a particular emphasis on the fast rail link direct to London Waterloo, as well as sea and air travel to the Channel Islands and mainland Europe from Poole ferry port and Bournemouth International airport respectively. Bournemouth and Poole town centres are equidistant from the property and both offer superb shopping, recreational and entertainment facilities.

Vendor Comments

Whether renovating a house or hotel a building's architecture, history and location should always be considered. For No.65 it was important to me to retain the charm of the 1901 Victorian cottage but to also add a layer of contemporary details to refresh it's interior.

The new cottage timber front door was painted in F&B Pigeon to compliment the stone white exterior.

The open stair in the well proportioned entrance hall was exaggerated by using an off-black with a blue undertone, creating a contrast between the off-white walls and drawing you into the home.

Having the kitchen as the 'heart of the home' and a continuous floor directed towards the light meant the living areas are open enough to feel cohesive yet private enough to feel cosy.

The new kitchen was inspired by the traditional shaker cabinets and by pairing a daring dark front with the contrasting slim Alabaster counter a modern edge was added to the historical style.

The bathroom palette is a calming scheme with chrome Hansgrohe brassware, muted glazed ceramic tiles and reclaimed timber basin shelf to soften the space.
