41 Vine Street, Bishopthorpe Road, York YO23 1BB

A good sized, beautifully presented, TRADITIONAL END TERRACED HOUSE situated within the highly sought after BISHOPTHORPE ROAD area of York.

The property retains many period features including original fireplaces and cornicing to the ceilings. The house is entered directly from Vine Street, via a small flight of steps, into the entrance hall with staircase to the lower ground floor and first floor. Off the entrance hall is a living room and separate sitting room whilst to the lower ground floor is an additional, large open plan living, dining and kitchen area with walk-in pantry, door to the rear garden and cloakroom off.

To the first floor are two double bedrooms, both with original cast iron fireplaces, and the period style house bathroom.

To the rear of the house is a particularly attractive lawned garden enclosed within brick walls with decked terrace and brick built store sheds.

The area has become one of York's most sought after locations and benefits from the award winning range of shops on Bishopthorpe Road, easy access to the city centre, the railway station, outer ring road and Rowntrees Park leading to the banks of the River Ouse.
