Location

Kelham Island's riverside setting, central square and award winning pubs, bars and restaurants ensure that it is going to remain the most desirable area to live and invest in across the entire city. The area attracts an eclectic mix of residents and is ripe for investment, and has become 'the place to be' for every social occasion, due to award winning real ale pubs and the Kelham Island Brewery; the Kelham Island Tavern is the only pub to have won the CAMRA National Pub Of The Year Award for two years running!

Why Sheffield?

Sheffield remains the next buy to let investment hotspot within the North due to multi-million pound commercial and government investment by 2021, rising property prices and the city being recently named as the best city for university graduates in the UK.

The former industrial area of Kelham Island is on track to become the most desirable area to live within Sheffield, due to its eclectic mix of real ale pubs, award winning restaurants and riverside bars. This is being reflected in rapidly increasing property prices for residential and buy to let investment, as well as rental demand that is soon to overtake the City Centre.

Over 65,000 students study at Sheffield's two universities, including more than 7000 international students. The city recently topped a list of university cities that could benefit from more student accommodation; the universities are only able to provide 11,369 bedrooms to more than 46,890 full time students, leaving a massive 76% looking for accommodation in the private rented sector. Knight Frank has recently forecast this student population will increase by 15-20% over the next 5 years.
