Believed to have been built in 1920's, Bryn Deri, a detached 3 bedroom property, is a successful blend of original features with contemporary styling. In addition to being rich in character and charm, the property benefits from oil fired central heating, uPVC double glazing, new kitchen, beautiful open countryside views, and a "bbq hut" for alfresco dining. The village is served by a well stocked convenience store, hairdressers, two public houses, Country House Hotels, a primary school and the village church.
