Investment opportunity to purchase this mid-terraced property situated within the centre of North Shields. The accommodation is currently separated into two residential dwellings and a separate commercial space. Situated on the ground floor, the commercial space was previously a hair salon and offers a kitchen, store room and WC. To the first floor there is a spacious one bedroom flat offering a kitchen, living room and shower room. To the second floor there is a three bedroom maisonette offering a kitchen, living room and bathroom. The building benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas central heating and it is ideally situated close to all amenities and transportation links.
