Coventry City Centre South Regeneration Project

Adjacent to £450m Coventry City Centre South Regeneration Project with work due to begin late 2023. Beauchamp House is immediately below the blue outline of the development on the image. Outline Planning Approval was granted for the City Centre South scheme in April 2021. The scheme, which has already secured £98m in funding from the West Midlands Combined Authority is located in the southern part of the city centre and is made up of 6.4 hectares / 15 acres (the equivalent of nine football pitches), including Bull Yard, Shelton Square, Market Way, City Arcade. The developer Shearer Property Regen Ltd want to deliver new homes, a hotel, cinema, retail and restaurants along with co-working and community spaces. These proposals will create a new focal point for all of Coventry's communities to come together, as well as drawing in visitors, with inviting new public realm and accessible events space at its heart.
