Keybridge is a landmark residential development of 595 homes, ranging in size from studios to three-bedroom apartments, in central London's largest regeneration zone – Vauxhall, Nine Elms and Battersea (VNEB). The Vauxhall area occupies a privileged position as the gateway between this redevelopment and prime central London. This is one of the capital's best-connected neighbourhoods and a key transport hub in the region. Vauxhall's location and the extensive regeneration are delivering staggering results, with Knight Frank witnessing a 69% rise in average residential prices since 2010 (exceeding the 45% growth in prime central London)* and CBRE noting a 121% growth in average house prices in the local borough of Lambeth over the last decade.

With so much going for the Keybridge development, it's no wonder that the available properties are selling out fast. Discover the remaining homes by downloading the brochure now and registering your interest today.
