LYCHGATE COTTAGE

Lychgate Cottage is a wonderful Victorian house built in 1895 situated on a quiet no through lane in the sought after village of Great Milton. This is an attractive home that is both stylish and charming in equal measures.

Inside, the house has a warm and welcoming feel and is beautifully presented with modern décor seamlessly blended with the Victorian character. The accommodation is well proportioned and the ceiling height generous throughout. The accommodation includes a dual aspect sitting room with open fireplace and a second reception room with wood burning stove, that would make an ideal snug/family room. The light and airy kitchen/dining room with glass vaulted ceiling, breakfast bar and slate flooring features French doors that open out onto the paved terrace, creating a fabulous inside/outside space with enclosed low maintenance lawned garden beyond. There is also convenient door access from the kitchen to the front driveway. The guest cloakroom situated off the entrance hall completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, the house continues to wow with its central hallway, spacious landing/study area, principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further very good size double bedrooms and a smart contemporary family bathroom. The second floor offers a further impressive double bedroom with exposed beams and generous bathroom. As throughout the rest of the property, the bedrooms and bathrooms are immaculately presented throughout.
